OUR YOUNG FOLKS.

Advice to Boys.

Whatever you are, be brave boys!
The liar's a coward and slave, boys;
Though clever of ruses
And sharp at excusses,
He's a sneaking and pitiful knave boys!

Whatever you are, be frank boys!
'Tis better than money and rank, boys!
Still cleave to the right,
Be lovers of light,
Be open, above board, and frank, boys!

Whatever you are, be kind, boys!
Be gentle in manners and mind, boys!
The man gentle in mien,
Words, and temper, I ween,
Is the genuine truly refined, boys!

Whatever you are, be true, boys!
But be visible through and through, boys!
Leave to others the shamming
The "greening" and "cramming,"
In fun and in earnest, be true boys!

Dear Editor:—Papa says, we are to have a new editor of the EVANGELIST. He thinks Mr. Beer will have a Children's Department. I have been reading the children's little letters, when Mr. Garber was editor, and I like very much to read them. I have written intending to send it to the editor, but as I am so young I am afraid I cannot compose as well as other little children, but I am going to try now and if I don't succeed I will try again.

NORA LICHTY.

Morrill, Kan., Oct. 6, 1887.

Dear Editor:—As it has been sometime since I wrote for the paper, I thought I would write again. I will take as my subject, the power of God. God gives us everything that we have. Some people are proud of what they know, but not all the people who know the most in the world can tell, what a day may bring forth, or say whether they, or their friends will be well the next hour. God knows what will come to each of us, and health is his to give or to take away. Some people are proud that they are strong, but not all the strong people in the world could drive back the sea, stay the winds, or hold the clouds so that the rain could not fall. God can do all these great things. Oh, how great He is. We may fear God and love Him too, for he is good and kind, as well as great and strong. If we seek him and pray to him, he will bless us in old age, and take care of us in life and in death. I sold fifteen hand books, and received a nice book, Live Coals. I am very well pleased with my book.

Your friend,

DELIA BLUE.

South Haven, Kans., Oct. 21, 1887.

Dear Editor:—I have not written for some time, although I have not forgot to write. But where are all our little letter writers. I look in the EVANGELIST, every time we get our paper for a letter and can't see any. So I will write one and perhaps it may waken them up wherever they are. I am now going to school every day and we have a very good school teacher. Her name is Miss Alice Grifeth and we like her very much. She seems very good to us, and I love to go to school. I am in the Fourth Reader and I study Arithmetic, Philosophy and Spelling. My pa and my only brother Dan are cutting logs for Mr. Joseph Cramer, for the steam saw mill here. We still have preaching here every three weeks at half past ten o'clock by Mr. Smouse, and we all like him very well. They intend to put a new roof on the church house this fall. We may all remember well that winter is drawing near and fall is passing by. When we see the leaves falling and the trees all getting bare. Soon the little boys and girls will be merry skating upon the ice. Oh, when we see the leaves around us blowing we know that winter is near. Merry, merry winter. Now the wind is blowing and the snow is falling now. Well, dear editor I will draw my letter to a close. Good by,

SARAH RESSLER.

Cramersville, Pa.

OUR DEAD.

EMMERT.—Bro. Aaron Emmert fell asleep in Jesus Oct. 14, 1887. He was a consistent member of the Brethren church. He died with throat affection. He could not talk above a whisper for months before he died, yet he walked around until a few days before death. He left an affectionate Christian wife to mourn his loss. He had been married but a short time, and indeed, it was a spectacle of woe to see sister Laura mourning over the one with whom she expected a long and happy life. May the sympathizing Jesus comfort her in her bereavment and accompany her all the way through the dark wilderness of sin, and when through with the sorrow of this world, I pray that she may once more meet that dear one whose unconscious head she so tenderly pressed to her bursting and bleeding heart, on the shores of immortal glory, and may her joy there far exceed her deepest sorrow here.

I received this young brother into the church about five months ago. He had been a Conservative for a short time. Elder Cost and I anointed him with oil in the name of the Lord about five weeks before he died. Your unworthy servant preached the funeral in the German Baptist meeting house in Waynesboro, to a large audience. Bro. Oler, of Waynesboro, German Baptist, assisted in the services. Bro. Cost conducted the services at the grave. He left many friends to mourn his loss.

ISAAC D. BOWMAN.

GREGORY.—In the Salem congregation, Ind., Oct. 20, 1887, Sister Lina Gregory, daughter of Bro. and sister Edward Gregory, aged 26 years, 4 mo. and 12 days. She united with the church nearly two years ago and expressed herself as ready to go home. Funeral services by the writer in the Brethren church, (the first ever held there). Text Num. 23: 10, latter clause.

E. L. GORDON.

GARBER.—Died, of typhoid fever, near Auburn, Ill., Oct. 21, 1887, Uriah Daniel Garber, son of Bro. John and sister Susan Garber, aged 25 years, 9 months, and 15 days. The funeral discourse was delivered by the writer from Amos 4: 12, to a large concourse of relatives and sympathizing friends. Peace to his ashes.

A. M. RIDENOUR.

STROUSE.—Died at Pleasant Home, Ohio, Oct. 18th, Catharine Strouse, aged 60 years, three months and six days. Funeral sermon was preached in the Methodist church at Pleasant Home by

WM. KIEFER.

Kind words and looks are the outward demonstration. Patience and forbearance are the sentinels within.

Frank James, the ex-outlaw, who is in the last stages of consumption, is at the point of death. No hope is entertained of his recovery. He has been at Dallas, Texas, for some time.

A telegram from Cheboggan, Wis., Oct. 22nd, says:—The propeller Ontario is reported to have been blown to pieces by the explosion of her boiler in Georgian Bay, and thirty-five people killed.

A battery of six boilers exploded at the Lawrence Iron Works, Ohio, Oct. 24th, killing three persons.

At various places in Indiana the strongest gas wells in the world are being found.

During September 48,161 immigrants arrived in this country.

A Remedy in Kidney Affection.

"My kidneys were so affected I have been compelled to get up as much as ten times in one night. I had pains in my side, back and left shoulder, and down could hardly rise. I was unable to bend my body without great pain. I tried Simmons Liver Regulator and my condition has improved so much that I hardly ever feel any of my old trouble." W. Johnson, Express Agent, Macon, Ga.

Books.

A GREAT POPULAR CYCLOPEDIA.

The second volume of Alden's Manifold Cyclopedia more than bears out the promises of the first. There seems to be little doubt that it will prove to be the great popular Cyclopedia for the next score of years at least. The embodiment of an Unabridged Dictionary of Language and a complete Cyclopedia of Universal Knowledge in one work, in large type, with thousands of illustrations, and all for a price less than people have been used to paying for a Dictionary alone, is not only a novelty in plan, but to the ordinary book-buyer the fact is hardly less than astounding. Its accomplishment will certainly be creditable to Alden's Literary Revolution.

As to the quality of the work, both literary and mechanical, any common-sense reader is capable of judging. The two volumes received at this office (which any reader is welcome to call and examine) are certainly deserving of the unstinted praise which they seem to be receiving, as evince the following quotations:

"The book in all respects more than answers my expectations. It is a very neat volume, of a form convenient for use, firmly bound, of large, clear type, with contents of just that general character which the popular reader requires—comprehensive, accurate and compact. Its marvelously low cost makes it a prize easerly to be sought in every intelligence-loving household."—Prof. Henry N. Day, D. D., L L. D., Yale College, New Haven, Conn.

"A particularly valuable feature, the admirable guide to the pronunciation. The work, so cheap, is a God-send to the many who, like myself, have old editions of cyclopedias, too valuable to throw away, and yet in dates and statistics, and many other matters, are behind the times."—Rev. J. A. Bunner, San Rafael, California.

"I am delighted. The clear type is restful to the eye, and the press-work faultless. You have commenced a grand work."—Rev. J. B. Ludwig, New Castle, Ind.

"I cannot refrain from expressing my astonishment at receiving a book so carefully edited, neatly bound, and legibly printed. It is indeed a marvel."—W. H. Cullen, St. Elmo, Texas.

"First volume of the Cyclopedia received. The list of abbreviations is worth the cost of the first volume."—E. R. Culver, Poe, Ohio.

"The Manifold takes! You will, I really believe sell 200 in this county alone."—T. N. French, Alexandria, Ind.

The publisher, John B. Alden, 393 Pearl st. New York, or Clark and Adams sts., Chicago, will send specimen pages free to any applicant, or a specimen volume in cloth for 50c., or half Morocco, 65c.; postage 10c. extra.

A Novel Bet.

While I am not a betting man, said F.T. Cheney, of the firm of F. G. Cheney & Co., I considered it my religious duty to make that fellow a bet, you see he was about dead, and I guess he would of died before spring, if I had not of got him on the bet. You know some men had rather lose their life than lose a hundred, well he was one of that kind, and we both came near being out, but I saved my hundred and it only cost him ten dollars. How's that? He sent for me one day and said the doctors had all given him up to die, with the catarrh. I told him that I would bet him $100 that Hall's Catarrh Cure would cure him or I would give him $100 if it failed. He took the latter proposition. This was three months ago; you see how he looks now don't you, as well as any one and a dandy. American, Toledo, O.
